Title of Program #1: Histeria!			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	Number of Preemptions	If preempted, complete Preemption Report
M-TH 7:30AM	52	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 6 years to 12 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. "Histeria" is intended to spark an interest in and love of history in the minds and hearts of young viewers. In an effort to prepare youngsters to take a functional role in society, today's schools are placing a heavy emphasis on the teaching of basic skills. By combining facts and comedy, "Histeria" is intended to keep history alive, supply youngsters with a portion of the historical frame of reference missing in the schools, and challenge them to proceed with future learning. The learning objective and goals are fully integrated with the story-lines, characters, and the historical settings dealt with in "Histeria". In this way, new knowledge and learning skills become part of the overall fun of the series. Examples of educational goals are for viewers to develop an awareness of, and appreciation of history, increase viewers core historical knowledge base, and enhance viewers knowledge and understanding of different ethnic, religious, geographical, cultural, and gender-based groups.

FRI. 3:00PM	13	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 6 years to 11 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. "Detention" is intended to provide viewers with a series of positive character-building and pro-social educational experiences, geared toward aiding them in their own personal, social and intellectual development. The boys and girls of Benedict Arnold Middle School serve as models of preadolescent kids living in this fast-paced technological society, and attempting to successfully manage the physical, emotional, and intellectual demands concomitant with their age group. Viewers will benefit from observing the kids in "Detention" make choices in order to deal with the predicaments and challenges with which they are faced. The learning goal and objectives are fully integrated with the story-lines, characters and settings dealt with in "Detention" and provides the young viewing audience with a non-threatening arena from which to observe and learn from the actions of others. The educational objectives encourage viewers to develop positive personal qualities and pro-social behaviors which may include truthfulness, kindness, initiative, earnestness, compassion, cooperation, helpfulness, sharing and leadership.

Title of Program #5: City Guys			Origination Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Mon-Fri 7am (9/3/01/-9/30/01)	20	30 (minutes)	from 13 to 16 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. City Guys: The educational objective of this program is to demonstrate how the knowledge of one or more characters in the story moves from one level to a more informed or higher level of knowledge by the end of each episode. This change in knowledge conveys an educational message to the audience which may fall into one or more categories - intellectual-cognitive and/or socio-emotional. The message will always be integral to the plot and present throughout the script. This objective is achieved in this series by exploring the pressures of living in a big city environment where situations are sometimes so difficult and challenging, kids have to learn sophisticated and responsible decision-making to be safe and stay focused. The series follows the encounters and problem-solving of two young men through an eventful school year at Manhattan High and shows teens how to work with their principal, family and friends to be successful.

Title of Program #6: Sherlock Holmes in the 22nd Century			Origination Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:

Mon 7am (9/3-9/30/01)	4	30 (minutes)	from 9 to 11 (years)
------------------------------	----------	---------------------	-----------------------------

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.
Sherlock Holmes in the 22nd Century: The series is designed to build problem-solving and information management skills and to model the pro-social values and behaviors associated with enduring friendships and effective teamwork. Problem solving themes are illustrated in each episode which also demonstrates fundamental principles of gathering, evaluation and interpreting information and using it to imagine and test plausible scenarios. It is the intent of the series to motivate children to see critical thinking and team problem-solving as exciting, fun, and within their capacity.

Title of Program #7: Tama & Friends	Origination Syndicated
---	----------------------------------

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Sun 7am (9/10-9/30/01)	3	30 (minutes)	from 2 to 7 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.
Tama and Friends: This animated series promotes the importance of friendship and working together. The program uses the characters of cats and dogs getting along as a way to reinforce tolerance and appreciation for the differences in people. The stories are ingrained with messages like the power of cooperation, the idea that perseverance pays off and that it's not what's on the outside but what's on the inside that counts.
